Brief Reasons, if any:

At the case management conference today, I provided the parties with additional information regarding the trial of this action:

1. The court can accommodate the start of this trial on Monday October 5, 2026.
2. The trial will take place in the courthouse at 330 University Avenue. The court will book a large courtroom for the proceeding to accommodate counsel and observers. The trial will take place in-person, in Toronto, but there will be the ability to have witnesses testify by Zoom. The parties indicated that they would like a Zoom webinar running to permit persons (other than counsel) to observe the trial.
3. The court will advise the parties of the identity of the trial judge in January 2026.
4. Given Ontario's case conference memo, the trial will take place using Case Center software.
5. The trial will sit 35 weeks per year. The sitting schedule will be set in early 2026 and the parties will then be able to block their witnesses into that schedule.

The next case management conference will take place on September 22, 2025, at 5:00 PM on the following zoom link:
