Relief Requested:

Next steps in finalizing the issues lists

Disposition made at hearing or conference (operative terms ordered):

See below.

Brief Reasons, if any:

The parties have made good progress in their attempt to resolve the issues lists for trial but have not been able to reach a consensus. The parties agree that further discussions are unlikely to be fruitful and it is now time for the court to settle the issues.

To assist me to determine the issues, I will receive two more sets of submissions from each party to be delivered on January 16, 2026, and January 26, 2026. The second set of submissions should not raise any new issues. They should only respond to issues raised in the first set of submissions. Submissions should be served on the other parties with a copy delivered to Theresa.finelli@ontario.ca.

Once I have reviewed the submissions I will determine the format and timing of a case conference to answer any questions that I may have. I anticipate that the case conference will take place no later than the week of February 9, 2026.
